

Prom '88

Fiesta!! What a prom the Class of 1989 put on! The theme of a Mexican fiesta went right along with the upbeat mood of the evening.

After many months of planning, the weekend of the prom finally arrived. Juniors headed to Hidden Valley to decorate the dining hall in the Mexican tradition. Serapes, sombreros, pinatas, twinkle lights, and hundreds of balloons were hung about.

When May 21, 1988 arrived, there were a thousand things to do. Girls had to get their hair done and their make-up just right. The guys had to pick up corsages. Then, in the late afternoon, they dressed up in stunning gowns and sharp tuxes.

Everyone followed tradition and went to dinner before the prom. Many chose to partake of the buffet at Hidden Valley. Those that did were treated to a wonderful meal with an elegant atmosphere.

After dinner, music was provided by the band Hypnotize. Junior Vera Bush joined them for one song. Even though some of the girls had a hard time dancing in their formal attire, everyone moved to the music and had a fantastic time.

At midnight, the Junior and Senior Courts were crowned. The Junior King and Queen were Darrin Gauvin and Kim Saunders. Their Court was Mike Kotmel, Chrissie Starkweather, Joel Grover, and Collette Rinker. The Senior King and Queen were John Heichel and Rosie Colunio. Their Court was Rebecca Titus, Scott McCarty, Tracy Monks, and Mike Gardner.

The 1988 Prom was a night to be remembered. It was night of polish, sophistication, and style.

Junior Court: Collette Rinker, Chrissie Starkweather, Queen Kim Saunders, King Darrin Gauvin, Mike Kotmel, Joel Grover.
