In the huddle, Coach Larison psyches the team. This was the night that squad romped Southern Cayuga.

'We block real high, we spike real low, we give those girls a darn good show!!!' The theme of the Girls' Varsity Volleyball team said it all. They were a working team, a fighting team, a winning team.

When faced with competition, the squad was always confident that they were going to win. It was that confidence that allowed them to finish the season 11-9 and carried them on to Sectional play.

Their victories weren't always easy. They rallied together and worked as 'una familia', according to Wendy Hughey. Sometimes, though that unity was hard to achieve because the squad had difficulties in communicating on the court. The girls overcame that obstacle to beat such teams as Lansing. Stacey Sayre called Lansing the

'K.A. Triple Play', and Michelle Reynolds said that the team really had to fight to down the Bobcats. That victory moved the team into the second round of Sectional play, where they faced an even tougher opponent-Can-dor. Unfortunately, the Blue Indians defeated them.

Even so, the Varsity Girls' Volleyball team was a team of winners. They won as a team and lost as a team because they were all outstanding. 'We don't have one stand-out', said Stacey Sayre, 'we have six.'
