

Senior High Concert Band

Making beautiful music was the aim of the Senior High Concert Band. Every day during 5th Period, its members gathered to perfect the scores that Mr. Shewan had carefully selected. He directed them through each piece, measure by measure, until no flaws remained.

Mr. Shewan was given many a headache as he tolerated the squeaks and squawks of the musical learning process. But when the day of a performance came, he, along with the audience, was treated to the harmonious strains of the nearly perfect band.

As any member would tell you, there was more to the band than just a group of people coming together to perform. There was a certain air of friendship in the band room that was extremely contagious. It was the place to go if you wanted to share a concern or a happiness. Everyone found that Mr. Shewan was always good for a smile and ready to talk. Not only did band members take with them a wealth of musical knowledge, but also a lifetime of memories made during their days in Room 309.
